Opening Serve

- The Cougars will look to snap a four-match skid on Friday against Incarnate Word after dropping three in a row at Georgia's Bulldog Classic last weekend.
- Senior Claire Campbell has been tremendous thus far entering the weekend ranked fourth in the nation with a blistering .506 hitting percentage. The Raleigh, N.C. native has hit at least .300 in all six matches including four performances over .500.
- Charleston's serving corps began the season in record-setting form dropping in an overall and five-set single-match record 17 aces against Fresno State.

Notables

SERIES HISTORIES

- The Cougars have faced Incarnate Word only once before in their history sweeping the Cardinals on Sept. 1, 2017 at Washington State's Cougar Challenge.
- Charleston is 35-2 all-time against former SoCon foe Wofford. The programs have faced each other only once since the Cougars moved to the CAA in 2013.
- The Cougars own a 27-12 all-time record against Coastal Carolina but have not squared off with the Chanticleers since 2014.

BALANCED ATTACK

The Cougars have spread the offensive wealth quite effectively thus far with four players averaging at least two kills per set through six matches. Senior Gabi Bailey leads the pack with 3.45 kills per set while Anna Smith and Claire Campbell are each averaging 2.23 kills per frame. Lexi Wierzbicki enters the weekend ranked fourth on the team at 2.11 kills per set.

DISHING IT OUT

Sophomore setters Emma Appleman and Jasmin Goei have formed a lethal tandem at the pivot for the Cougars so far this season averaging 5.77 and 5.37 assists per set, respectively. The duo is a big reason why Charleston enters the weekend ranked second in the league in assists per set (12.18).

ACING THE OPENER

The Cougars' serving corps made an immediate statement of intent in the season opener on Aug. 26 as Charleston set an overall and five-set single-match record with 17 service aces in a reverse sweep of Fresno State. Four Cougars recorded at least two aces led by Anna Smith who equaled the Cougars' five-set record with a match- and career-high six. Sofie Vogel also dropped in a personal-best five of her own.

MIDDLE EFFICIENCY

Claire Campbell and Emma Falk have been strong in the middle thus far entering the weekend with a combined hitting percentage of .369 in 160 attempts. Campbell has been especially efficient ranking second in the CAA and fourth nationally with a blistering .506 attack percentage thus far.

SOPHOMORE STANDOUTS

Charleston's sophomore class has picked up right where it left off in its rookie campaign with Emma Appleman, Jasmin Goei, Tynley Smeltzer and Anna Smith all playing key roles in the rotation thus far. Smith has started all six matches while Appleman and Goei have each made three starts.

VETERAN LEADERSHIP

The Cougars boast one of the most experienced rosters in the CAA this season with eight seniors and one junior in the fold. Seniors Gabi Bailey, Claire Campbell, Emma Falk and Lexi Wierzbicki, along with junior Sofie Vogel, all feature prominently in the rotation while Tori Carpenter, Caroline Pender, Logan Pope and Cat Schmid each provide an experienced option off the bench.

THE RACE FOR GLORY

Charleston was picked to finish third in the race for the 2022 CAA Championship behind back-to-back-to-back champion Towson and last season's runner-up, Elon. The Cougars received one first-place vote after posting a 9-7 record in league play last fall.

PRESEASON HARDWARE

Senior Lexi Wierzbicki was named to the Preseason All-CAA team after leading the Cougar attack and ranking sixth in the CAA in kills per set (3.03) last season. The 2021 All-CAA First Team selection roared out to the gate in 2022 putting down a match-high 21 kills and hitting .442 in the Cougars' reverse sweep of Fresno State last Friday.
